POLICY STATEMENT ON COUNTER TERRORISM

Policy statement - QSA will use its best endeavours to uphold security legislation by ensuring that all funds and other resources designated for the purposes of aid and development are not diverted, even indirectly or inadvertently, to support terrorist activities or terrorists groups. This is applicable to all staff, volunteers, members of the Company of QSA, consultants, all project partners and any contractors that may be engaged to assist them in their work.

QSA is aware that making funds available to another person or group, provide funds to or collect funds, without due diligence checking to ascertain whether the funds will be used to facilitate or engage in a terrorist act is an offence under Division 103 of the Criminal Code. In addition, such contact could irreparably damage QSA's reputation, status and donor confidence.

Any contact made with QSA by terrorist groups identified on DFAT's Consolidated List and the Criminal Code list of terrorists at <https://www.nationalsecurity.gov.au/Listedterroristorganisations/Pages/default.aspx> must be, and will be, immediately reported to the Australian Federal police and DFAT to prevent resources being made available to officially declared terrorists and terrorist groups.
